

Electrical and Fire Safety Final Exam

Quiz

1. GFCI stands for:

- Green Fault Circuit Interface
- Guiding Flow Circuit Information
- Ground Fault Circuit Interrupter
- Guidance Finding Circuit Integration

2. If a person is being electrocuted, you should pull them away from the source of the electricity.

- True, because the electrocution could kill them.
- True, because the second person help ground the electricity
- False, because once you pull the person away, the electricity will be in their body.
- False, because the electricity will pass through to you and electrocute both of you.

3. When you unplug your electrical equipment, you should _____ on the plug, not the cord.

- pull
- twist
- yank
- use wet fingers

4. Sources that can cause electrocution or shock include:

- fire extinguishers
- GFCIs
- grounded and insulated wires
- worn, frayed, or cracked wires

5. A fire extinguisher should be:

- kept no more than 200 feet from anyone who might need it.
- inspected once every 18 months
- mounted with easy-to-read and approved signage
- red so that people can see them

6. A poor conductor of electricity is:

- wood
- copper
- steel
- water

7. Class A fire extinguisher should be used to extinguish _____ fires.

- flammable liquid
- wood and paper
- electrical
- All of the above

8. When using a fire extinguisher, it is best to:

- aim at the edges of the fire and work your way to the middle
- aim at the top of the fire
- aim at the base of the fire
- spray wildly at the fire

9. Which of the following should be done in the case of an electrical accident?

- Pull the victim away from the source of electricity
- Turn off the power to the electric current
- Spray the victim with a fire extinguisher
- Pour water on the victim

10. Fire extinguishers should be no more than _____ away from you, while in the kitchen.

- 5
- 10
- 20
- 50

11. What is the first thing you do when you come across a fire?

- Locate the nearest fire extinguisher
- Tell people there is a fire
- Head for the emergency exit
- Call for 911

12. During a fire:

- all employees should meet outside at a designated assembly point so that management can account for all personnel
- all employees should go home, so their families will know that they are okay
- all employees should go to the highest point in the building to avoid smoke inhalation

- all employees should work to put out the fire

13. Fire extinguishers should be checked on-site:

- daily
- weekly
- monthly
- yearly

14. Which of these is NOT a flammable that you might find in a business?

- Cleaning solvent and supplies
- Fire Extinguishers
- Gasoline
- Glues

15. Ladders should never be placed on _____.

- trees
- house gutters
- powerlines
- a patio